From Monday March 17. to Thursday March 20. 1706.

Kenſington, March 19.

THE following Addreſs from the County of Surrey was preſented to Her Majeſty by Iſaac Shard Eſq; High-Sheriff; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland, Lord-Lieutenant of the ſaid County,

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace and Gentlemen, aſſembled at the Aſſizes, held for the County of Surrey, at Kingſton upon Thames, the 12th of March, 1706.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE humbly crave Leave to congratulate the many Glories of Your moſt Excellent Reign, to acknowledge the unſpeakable Bleſſings Your Subjects enjoy under Your wiſe Adminiſtration, and by the happy Agreement between Your Majeſty and Parliament.

To which (next under GOD*) we own the Securing the Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line, the Reducing the Exorbitant Power of* France, and the Uniting the Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland.

We are truly ſenſible, that nothing can more effectually tend to preſerve Your Royal Perſon in Honour and Safety, ſupport Your Government as by Law eſtabliſhed both in Church and State, and to give Your Subjects ſuch Strength, Wealth and Safety at Home, as may render Great Britain more formidable Abroad.

On this Solemn Occaſion we aſſure Your Majeſty, of our Diſpoſitions ſo to Unite, as to become one People in Affection and Intereſt; That there may remain no other Diſtinction amongſt us, but who are for Your Majeſty and the Eſtabliſhed Government, and who are for Popery and a French Pretender.

The Addreſs which follows from the County of Wilts was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. the Marqueſs of Dorcheſter.

The humble Addreſs of the Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Deputy-Lieutenants, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Wilts, at the Aſſizes, held at the City of New-Sarum, on the 8th Day of March, 1706-7.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AS by a wonderful Courſe of Providence, it fell on us, at Your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne, at the ſame Place, and like Meeting, to be the firſt of Your Subjects in the Weſt that humbly Addreſſed Your Majeſty on that Occaſion; and therein were ſo fortunate, as to preſage, as it were, with a Prophetick Spirit, what great Things were reſerv'd for Your Majeſty's future Adminiſtration: We do now moſt humbly crave Leave to preſent our ſelves to Your Majeſty, with Hearts full'd with a ſincere Zeal for Your Service, and tranſported at the unparallel'd, and till now unheard of, Triumphs of Your Glorious Reign: It has been what ſurpaſs'd our Expectation, and exceeded our Hopes, and would carry us to an Amazement, did we not reflect back, that it is but the juſt Reward of Heaven to ſo Inimitable a Virtue God hath endued Your Majeſty with.

Among ſo many Inſtances, we ſhould be wanting to our ſelves, if we did not at this time expreſs our moſt grateful Senſe and humble Thanks for Your Majeſty's moſt indulgent and tender Care of Your People of both Nations, by effecting and giving Your Royal Sanction to ſo Stupendious a Work as the UNION; a Work of ſo great Difficulty and Niceneſs, and withal ſo full a Proviſion for the Peace, Quiet and Security of Your People, both in their Civil and Religious Rights, that will make Your Majeſty's bleſſed Reign remembred and ſpoke of hereafter with Honour and Glory.

It remains only to aſſure Your Majeſty, We will do our Endeavours to render it as Effectual as recommended to us from the Throne, by acting with all poſſible Reſpect and Kindneſs to one another, and ſhewing ſuch a Diſpoſition of Love and Charity, as may probably, by Your Majeſty's bright Influence, diſpel all Clouds of Faction or Animoſity for the future.

Both which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Roveredo, March 12. N. S. Letters from Mantua adviſe, That a Treaty was in a manner concluded for the French Forces evacuating that Place, and all the other Towns and Caſtles they poſſeſs in Italy. The Duke of Savoy has taken poſſeſſion of Alexandria, and put a Gariſon into that Town. Eight hundred German Recruits paſſed by this Place laſt Week towards the Milaneze. Letters from thence ſay, That the Genoeſe refuſing to pay the Contributions demanded of that Republick, a Detachment of Imperial Troops was ordered to march towards their Frontiers. Thoſe which the Territories of the Eccleſiaſtical State are to pay being ſettled, the German Troops that had taken Quarters in the Bolonieſe are retired from thence.

Vienna, March 12. Captain Pableck arrived here the 10th Inſtant from Tranſilvania, being diſpatched by the Baron de Tiege, who lately marched thither with a Detachment of the Imperial Army in Hungary. He brings an Account, That they met between Clauſembourg and Hermanſtad a Body of Malecontents, much ſuperior in Number to the Imperialiſts, who however attacked them, and after an obſtinate Fight obliged them to retire, with the Loſs of 1800 of their Men. The Imperialiſts had not above 90 Men killed, and about the ſame Number wounded. General Rabutin is with the Imperial Troops under his Command near Stein, and has ordered a Line to be made near St. Gothard, to cover the Frontiers of Stiria.

Berne, March 16. By Letters from Milan of the 12th Inſtant, which are juſt now come in, we have an Account, That an Agreement was concluded for the French Troops quitting all the Places they remained poſſeſſed of in Italy; and that in purſuance thereof the Hoſtilities between the Town and Caſtle of Milan ceaſed at 4 a Clock that Morning, at which time Monſieur St. Pater, a French Officer, ſent for that purpoſe by General Medavi, went with ſeveral German Officers into the Caſtle, to ſettle Matters in order to the evacuating of that Place. The Enemy were likwiſe to withdraw their Troops from Mantua, and all the other Places they held in thoſe Parts, and they were to be conducted to Suza.

Francfort, March 20. The Gariſon of Landau is now very numerous, and ſufficiently provided with all Neceſſaries for its Defence, and a great number of Workmen are daily employed in perfecting the Works lately added to its Fortifications. The like Care has been taken to provide for the Safety of Philipsbourg; and the Confederate Troops on this ſide being every where upon their Guard, it will be very difficult for the Enemy to make any Attempt: They ſeem to have laid aſide the Preparations they were making in Alſace, and continue very quiet in their Quarters. They write from Savoy, That a Party of 800 Germans having paſſed the Mount St. Bernard, had made an Incurſion into the French Territories, and carried home a conſiderable Booty. The Deputies of the Circle of the Upper Rhine continue aſſembled here to conſult upon the Methods of providing, without any loſs of time, the Ammunition, and other Neceſſaries, which they are to furniſh towards the Service of the next Campaign on the Rhine.

Hague, March 25. N. S. The Earl of Mancheſter, Her Majeſty of Great Britain's Ambaſſador Extraordinary to the Republick of Venice, arrived here yeſterday from England, and intends in three or four Days to proceed on his Journey. A Fleet is lately come from England into the Maeſe with Recruits and Horſes, which have been landed at Williamſtad. There being Advice, That the French Troops were in motion upon the Frontiers in the Netherlands, Orders have been ſent to our Troops, which are quartered along the Maeſe, to be in a readineſs to march upon the firſt Notice they ſhould receive; and a Reinforcement of 2000 Men was ſent to the Gariſon of Courtray: But by the Letters which came in this Day, we hear the Enemy are quiet again. Letters from Italy confirm the News of an Agreement between Prince Eugene and Monſieur Medavi; in purſuance of which, the French Troops were to evacuate all the Places they were yet poſſeſſed of, either in the Milaneſe or the Mantuan, by the 16th Inſtant. The States of Holland and Weſtfriſeland will adjourn to Morrow for a Fortnight.

Plimouth, March 14. Yeſterday came into this Port three Danes bound for Lisbon, the Europe for Fluſhing from the Weſt-Indies, and Her Majeſty's Ship the Kent from the Downes.

Dartmouth, March 14. The Hooker Galley, Capt, Barker Tillet, the Ann Galley, Capt. Martin Culliford, the Eagle Galley, Capt. Street, the Ginne Galley, Capt. Bolton, the Mary Galley, Capt. Curthbertſon, and the Neptune Privateer, Capt. Penny, Commanders, ſailed hence two Days ago, all bound for London.

Cowes, March 15. This Morning was brought in here by a Privateer of Middleburgh, called the New Dolphin, Captain John Chriſtianſon Commander, of 16 Guns, and 105 Men, the Duke of Savoy, a French Privateer of 10 Guns, and 75 Men, which he took on Thurſday laſt off of Portland.

Deale, March 18. On the 16th Inſtant Her Majeſty's Ships the Warwick and Lark ſailed towards the River. Yeſterday the Ginne Galley, Captain Bolton Commander, arrived here from Lisbon, but laſt from Dartmouth.

Whitehall, March 17. Her Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to create Sir Chriſtopher Wandesford, of Kirklington in the County of York, Bar. a Baron and Viſcount of Her Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland, by the Names, Stile and Titles, of Baron Wandesford, and Viſcount Caſtlecomer, in the County of Kilkenny in the ſaid Kingdom.
